GSWPGA (City) June 9th the ProAm at Riverbend. Riverbend had 4 teams in this event. (Maplewood had six.)

Photo taken on Mick Kelley's patio at the ProAM. Look closely and you will see short pants, short sleeve shirts and even some sleeveless shirts. The weather was good.

Marti O'Neal, Kellie Molzhon, Cheryl Lienesch, Shari Boggs Eric Hinrichs, Angela Hobbs, Kathy Provazek, Lynne Crandall Steve Pasternicky, Laura Risher, Mary Ryan, Ok Yun Lim Josh Immordino, Kris Immordino, June Secreto, Sheryl Lede

From your Tournament Directors: Judy Griffin and Kris Immordino I think that the invitational is doomed to be played in the rain. We had 68 ladies play this year with only one team dropping out due to the bad weather. We had ladies come all the way from Lake Cushman, to Hi-Cedars and Lake Tapps. Thanks to everyone that donated a gift. We hope to see you all next year. A big thanks to June Secreto for being our "ambassador" and Mary Powers for her helping hand, thanks ladies. We hope next year will be as big a turn out with NO rain.

FYI, the $50 entry fee included green fees, a sandwich and soda and there were more than 30 door prizes. Put this event on your calendar for next year. It is always a fun time.

Final results:
1st place team with a score of 63 Jayme Carbon Annette Bliss Diana Garza Kristin tan
2nd place team with a score of 68 (tie) Elana Bryan Sheila Locke Shari Boggs Pam Westphal

PLAYER RECOGNITION Peggy Haugan Hello Ladies! We are half way through our season already. Unfortunately, we are still dealing with variable weather conditions. Some days have been perfect, but I still notice most everyone still has pretty white arms and legs! Congratulations to Kellie Molzhon who scored her personal best of 81 on 6/8/11. Following are the updates on the various races:

Birdies: Mary Ryan has doubled her count and now has 4. Kristine Gula, Angela Hobbs and Kris Immordino are all in second place with a 3-way tie, having 2 each.

Chip-Ins: These have remained the same as last month. Cheryl Lienesch and Mary Powers have 2 each.

Most Rounds Played: Mary Powers continues to be the player on the course most often with 9 rounds. Cheryl Lienesch has 7 and June Secreto has 6.

Results from Washington State Women's Public Links Assn.

WSWPLA (State) One day event at High Cedars June 15th..

Flight Laura Risher and Mary Ryan in the field. Neither finished in the money.

Results from TWGA Meadow Park June 6, Mary Ryan 1st Low Net.

Cheryl Lienesch was also in the field. TWGA sent Mary Ryan a check, for $17.00 for this win. Not proshop credit. Another good reason to play TWGA. events.

Results from WSGA Home Course June 21,22,23 Women's

Amateur and Women's Senior Amateur

Results from WSGA Women's Member Club Team Championship, Suncadia, June 2,3

Ryan, Risher, Boggs & Landino second place
Provazek, Molzhan, Pearson, Tuttle finished out of the money. The Ryan Risher Boggs Landino finish comes complete with a story: About 15 minutes after the last team was in the clubhouse a WSGA volunteer warned us not to leave that there was going to be a playoff. Provazek, Molzhan Pearson and Tuttle had been in the clubhouse for 2 hours by this time and most of that team left when the playoff was announced. Fifteen minutes later it was announced the playoff was between Snoqualmie Ridge and Sand Point. Risher, Boggs and Landino opted to stay to watch the playoff and attend the awards ceremony. Ryan decided to leave. Sandpoint had retrieved their bags from their cars, changed shoes and was on the teebox ready to play when the error was announced.. The tie was between Snoqualmie Ridge and Riverbend Team Ryan, Risher, Boggs and Landino. Riverbend handicapped with one less team member lost the playoff.

Sheila Locke at Long Drive Competition. With drives over 217 yards, seven women qualified in the senior division in this long drive playoff held June 4th at Newcastle's China Creek. There was an elimination round where the seven women pictured below were whittled down to three. Sheila was in the final three and finished in 2nd place overall as her fans chanted, "Sis Boom Bah!" and "Wait till next year!"

Earlier that afternoon, on Mick Kelly's patio, Sheila announced she had earned a berth in this prestigious competition to be held later that day. Three RLGA members invited themselves along. These pictures came from the phone cameras of the members of that cheer squad, Laura Risher, Susan Stahl and Mary Ryan.

RLGA's handicap chairman, Jerri Proszek was there too. Her husband had also qualified at the golf show. That day he took home first place in his division with a drive of 276 yards.

At the golf show in February there was a long drive competition booth. Pay money and swing the club inside a net. An electronic device measured distance. This event at Newcastle was the culmination of that five dollar investment.

Some people take this long drive competition pretty darn seriously. The winner of the men's open division had five drivers, with what Sheila said were long drive competition shafts.

When you RLGA members do fun golf things, send the facts and photos for the Fore to marypatryan@comcast.net.

Maybe you will inspire other RLGA members to do more. In this event, where are Landino and Boggs and Kay. Maybe next year RLGA members will take over this long drive competition. As it should be!
